Repertoire (Selections prepared, with title and composer):

Required Components	Does not Meet	Meets	Exceeds
Musicianship: Preparation of the music (note accuracy, phrasing, intonation, rhythm, language/diction, memorization)	Exhibits frequent inaccuracy in note, text, and rhythm throughout the performance. Memorization is incomplete.	Maintains good precision in note, text, and rhythm in most of the performance. Occasional inaccuracy does not detract from overall performance. Memorization is complete with some errors.	Maintains superb precision in note, text, and rhythm throughout the performance. Memorization is natural and complete.
Technique: Preparation of the vocalist (tone, breathing/alignment, mouth, tongue, jaw, projection, articulation)	Technique is more insecure than confident. The tone quality often detracts from overall performance.	Technique serves musical interpretation, but may not be solidly confident or assimilated yet. Tone quality typically does not detract from the performance.	Technique serves musical interpretation. Production of sound is professional, clear, and even throughout range. Vibrato or dynamic is used to enhance tone.
Artistry: How well ideas are communicated to the audience (stage presence, musicality, expression, tempo, phrasing, vitality, dynamic range, ensemble)	The lack of artistic consideration is an obstacle to success.	Is clearly connected to the music but needs further guidance on what is stylistically important, particularly implicit musical elements	Demonstrates a connection to the music beyond mere notes, rhythms and technical considerations. The performance is meaningful and expressive all of the time.
